PRESIDENCY IS VEXED PROBLEM

Mediation Conference Faces Difficult Situation.

AMERICAN ENVOYS ARE FIRM

United States Government Believes the Only Solution of Present Tangle Is to Place the Executive Power in the Hands of a Broad Minded Constitutional.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 15.—Although there were no conferences between the mediators and the American or Mexican delegates it was apparent that things were making for a great struggle in diplomacy between the United States and the Huerta government during the coming week.

While mediation has passed safely over many obstacles so far the factor on which peace most depends—the selection of a provisional president acceptable to all factions—has brought the entire mediation body to a realization that ultimately on this mediation will succeed or fail. Many names have been suggested, but thus far none has been found suitable.

There is no longer any doubt in the minds of the mediators or Mexican delegates that the American government believes the only solution of the present tangle is to place the executive power in the hands of a broadminded Constitutional through a peaceful negotiations rather than to have the inevitable occur—a military conquest of Mexico City—with the possibility of international complications through injuries to foreigners.

In the last few days alone has the American government's position been revealed publicly, but on the highest authority it became known that the United States had informed the mediators in unequivocal language at the very outset that it contemplated favoring a Constitutional for provisional president.

Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann have made it clear that the Washington government itself has no preference for persons, or parties, but that in forming a judgment on the most feasible and certain way to bring peace to Mexico it had come to the conclusion that control must be given to the Constitution. On no other terms will the big Constitutional force lay down arms.

HONORS FOR NAVAL HEROES

Navy Department Rewards Many Men at Vera Cruz.

Washington, June 15.—Officers and men among the American bluejackets and marines who distinguished themselves by conspicuous bravery and heroism at Vera Cruz were recognized formally and rewarded by the navy department.

Every one of the 108 singled out for mention in Rear Admiral Fletcher's reports of the occupation of the Mexican port was given official commendation in a letter from Secretary Daniels, bringing word in most cases of medals, gratuities and promotions. Secretary Daniels expressed appreciation of "conspicuously able and courageous performance of duties entailing, as they did, as grave responsibilities as could well be placed upon a naval commander."

DIVIDED OVER ROOSEVELT

Progressives Differ as to Urging Colonel to Run for Governor.

Washington, June 15.—The Progressives in the house are looking forward to a conference soon between former President Roosevelt and leading members of the Progressive party, including Progressives in congress.

One of the main subjects will be the nomination of a Progressive candidate for governor of New York and Mr. Roosevelt will be urged to carry the standard in New York himself, as well as to be the candidate for president in 1916.

Mr. Roosevelt remained silent on the question in his communication with Progressive members and there is a division of opinion among the Progressives as to urging him to become a gubernatorial nominee now.

THREE CHILDREN DROWNED

They Step Into a Fifteen-Foot Hole While Wading River.

Savannah, Mo., June 15.—Locked in each other's embrace Ludwig and Teresa, twins, children of Jacob Martin, and their twelve-year-old sister were drowned wading in the 102 river here. They had gone to the river to play and in trying to wade across stepped into a fifteen-foot hole. Their bodies were recovered.

LONDON BOLT KILLS SIX

Four Victims of Lightning Were Children.

London, June 15.—Lightning killed six persons and injured several on Wandsworth common during a storm. Four of those killed were children. Many buildings in South London were struck by lightning.

ITALIAN TROOPS RESTORE ORDER

General Strike Ends and Disturbances Are Few.

CAPTURE COUNT IN AN AUTO

Anarchists Compel Nobleman to Drive Through Ancona District Flying a Red Flag and Spread the News That They Had Established a Republic.

Rome, June 15.—By the occupation of the disaffected provinces by the military forces order is being restored rapidly and it is expected that within a day or two the entire district of Romagna, comprising the provinces of Bologna, Ferrara, Ravenna and Forli, will have resumed normal conditions.

In the Lugo district, however, disturbances are still in progress owing to the nonarrival of troops and at Ancona there remain signs of discontent, as the anarchist propaganda is being carried on still.

The general strike has come to an end and a strike of the railway men, which included only a small number of employees, has been called off. Railroad, telegraph and telephone lines are being repaired hurriedly. The railway line between most points has been re-established by use of military trains and sharpshooters.

Admiral Shagni, who was in command of the Italian bluejackets on their first landing at Tripoli, has now under his direction the quelling of disorders at Ancona. A detachment of bluejackets from the division has reinforced the garrison there.

When the revolutionary movement began at Ancona a week ago the anarchists organized a committee before which persons suspected of not favoring the revolutionary cause were interrogated. Count Ugolini of Pizarro was seized while driving in his automobile. The count pretended to sympathize with the revolutionists and finally a red flag was raised over his automobile and he was ordered to drive through the district accompanied by a member nicknamed Robespierre and spread the news of the advent of the republic.

Characteristic of the destruction wrought by the revolutionists was that suffered by the little town of Alfonsine, near Ravenna. There the station was reduced to ruins, the church was sacked, relics of the saints, the crucifix, chalices and candlesticks were heaped up in the square and burned.

At the town of Fabriano, forty-five miles from Ancona, the mob raided the police headquarters, but all the arms had been concealed.

WANTS JULY ADJOURNMENT

Underwood to Resume Efforts for Ending Session.

Washington, June 15.—Majority Leader Underwood has left for Charlottesville, Va., where, as retiring president of the University of Virginia alumni, he will participate in the commencement ceremonies. Upon his return Wednesday he expects to resume his efforts to get the support of senators for his plan for a July adjournment, following the disposition of the appropriation bills. The primaries will be held in some state within a month and representatives of these states want to be home.

EXPLODE BOMB IN CHURCH

Suffragettes Damage Famous London Edifice.

London, June 15.—A bomb was exploded in St. George's church, Hanover square. The explosion was the work of suffragettes and coming so close upon the bomb outrage in Westminster Abbey the desecration of this famous edifice has increased alarm as to how far the militant women intend to go.

Three pews in the north aisle and three stained windows were damaged by the explosion while another paw was blown down. An envelope was written in the church on which was found:

"A protest against the torture of women."

St. George's church was built in 1713-24. It has long been a favorite church for fashionable weddings. Premier Asquith was married there in 1894 and former President Roosevelt was married there in 1886.

DIES ON OIL-SOAKED QUILTS

Kansas City Young Woman Had Tried Suicide by Poison.

Kansas City, June 15.—Mrs. Mildred McMullin, twenty-seven years old, lay down upon a pile of quilts she had soaked with oil in her home here and lighted a match. Firemen found her body burned almost beyond recognition. Mrs. McMullin had been a sufferer from nervous prostration, according to relatives. Her husband said she had attempted suicide before by taking poison.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON.

Former Vice President of the United States Is Dead.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON DEAD

Was Vice President in Second Cleveland Administration.

Chicago, June 15.—Adlai E. Stevenson, vice president of the United States in the second Cleveland administration, died in a hospital here after an illness of several months. His three children were at his bedside when death came not unexpectedly. Mr. Stevenson was seventy-eight years old. His last illness followed a five months' vigil at the bedside of his wife, who died about six months ago. Mr. Stevenson suffered a nervous breakdown and a month ago he came to Chicago from his home at Bloomington, Ill., for treatment. His condition gradually became worse and he entered a hospital. The burden of his years and the oppressive heat of the last week contributed to his death.

For half a century Adlai Ewing Stevenson occupied a leading position in the national councils of the Democratic party.

ADMIRAL FLETCHER WILL BE PROMOTED

Vera Cruz Hero Will Command Atlantic Fleet.

Washington, June 15.—Command of the great Atlantic fleet, goal of every American naval officer's ambition, is to be the reward of Rear Admiral Frank F. Fletcher for his work in Mexican waters. Secretary Daniels will recommend Admiral Fletcher for commander-in-chief of the fleet to succeed Rear Admiral Badger when the latter soon completes his term of service.

Several of the navy's higher officers outrank him, but the secretary holds that the conspicuously masterful conduct of Admiral Fletcher at Vera Cruz entitles him to special recognition.

Moreover, if congress passes the pending bill creating the rank of vice admiral, Fletcher will be among the first to be advanced to that grade.

A navy department statement said: "Admiral Fletcher has been in Mexico since the presence of American ships in those waters was first called for and his command has been masterful. He proved himself not only a great admiral, but a statesman and diplomat as well."

TRIBESMEN ATTACK FRENCH

General Baumgarten Repulses Moroccan.

Odjda, Morocco, June 15.—General Baumgarten, with a column of French troops, while marching to join General Gouraud, was attacked from the rear by a large force of tribesmen concealed in ravines. After a desperate hand to hand battle the tribesmen were repulsed with severe losses. The French forces lost five killed and seventeen wounded.

MILITANTS HAVE SET SCALE OF REWARDS.

London, June 15.—According to the Daily Express the authorities have discovered that the militant suffragettes pay regular tariff rates for the commission of acts of violence. As an example it says $250 is the regular price paid for slashing a valued picture.

FOUR TRAINMEN ARE KILLED

Score of Passengers Hurt in Collision on Hocking Valley.

Logan, O., June 15.—Four trainmen were killed, another probably fatally injured and more than a score of passengers hurt when two passenger trains on the Hocking Valley railroad collided near here. Failure of a station agent to place the block for the northbound train was assigned by Hocking Valley officials as the cause of the collision.

MAY AMEND COMMERCE LAW

Commission Now Overloaded With Investigations.

POWERS GREATLY ENLARGED

Suggested That Two Bodies Be Formed to Care For Increased Demands For Time—Make Political Capital Out of Debates on How to Care For Old Soldiers in Government Employ.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 15.—[Special.]—Various amendments to the interstate commerce law, together with the valuation of railroad properties and the passage of resolutions requesting the interstate commerce commission to make various investigations, threaten to overload that important body with more work than it can possibly do.

Investigations themselves take up an immense amount of time, and nearly every rate case requires considerable investigation, examination of books and hearings of shippers and railroad men, which has overloaded the commission to such extent that congress has begun making inquiries as to how the commission can be relieved.

It has been suggested that there might be two commissions or that the present commission might be greatly enlarged and divided into subcommittees for the work. That something will have to be done within the near future, if the commission is to remain an effective and efficient organization, seems reasonably certain.

"No Politics In It"

The senate put in a whole day discussing the old soldiers who are employed by the government and who have reached an age where they are not able to do the work. In some cases a number of such men have been dismissed in the interest of efficiency, and this has naturally caused a great deal of trouble. When the matter was discussed in the senate the Democrats took the ground that the question had been raised for partisan purposes. Quite a number of Republicans asserted that there was "no politics in it," but simply a desire to obtain information and to find out what best should be done with these old soldiers.

Of course we are bound to take the word of honorable senators, who say that there is no politics in a question like the old soldiers, but it is not without the recollection of anybody around congress that a day was ever given to discussion of the old soldiers that somebody wasn't playing politics. It has been the charge of southern men many times during the discussion of pensions that both the Democrats and Republicans in the northern states were playing politics in voting for pensions.

Senator O'Gorman, Onlooker.

Senator O'Gorman is in charge of the bill to repeal the free tolls, although he is not in favor of the measure. He called it up at the beginning of the session in the senate one day and then sat there while a number of questions were discussed. He was an onlooker for the entire day, for the tolls were not mentioned. Senators became tired of the tolls debate and wanted to air their views on other questions. Politics entered into the discussion, and at this time, just as the campaign is coming on, there must be a little partisan debate in order to let the people know that politics is still an important subject.

Bryan's Belief.

Congressman Bryan of Washington quoted the better known Bryan as having favored government ownership of railroads for many years.

"I believe the Progressive party," said the Washington Bryan, "will have government ownership of railroads in its platform before long, because I believe the people of this country stand for government ownership of railroads and that they are going to find expression of their sentiment in the Progressive platform more quickly than in the platform of either of the parties."

Reed Rather Critical.

Senator Reed of Missouri has always been anxious that the dignity of the United States should always be asserted. In a recent speech in the senate he said: "I do not know whether this republic will ever be engaged in a great war. I do know that although every morning we liberate at Washington a flock of peace doves, yet at the same time the harpies of war are nesting in the capitals of every nation of the earth."

What Shall He Do?

Every man who takes charge of a department or bureau of the government is confronted with the question of inefficient and superannuated employees, and he knows not which way to turn. "It is the hardest thing for a man in charge of a bureau to do," said one of these men recently. "If he is conscientious and desires to fulfill his oath of office and give the government good service he is almost sure to get into trouble politically for the discharge of the old and superannuated employees. If he does not discharge them the government service suffers."

On time.
"Does he ever do anything on time?"
"Oh, yes. He quits work."—Detroit Free Press.

The remainder of the state ticket is: Lieutenant governor R. C. McCaleb, La Crosse; secretary of state, F. W. Redfield, Milwaukee; treasurer, Edward Deuss, Sheboygan; attorney general, Lyon D. Joseph, Green Bay.

The convention ratified the last national party platform.

MINERS INDULGE IN RIOTING AT BUTTE

Two Factions of Union Show Bitter Feeling.

Butte, Mont., June 15.—Rioting by seceding members of the local union of the Western Federation of Miners continued but with the announcement that Governor S. W. Stewart would arrive to investigate the situation some semblance of order was restored.

After dynamiting and looting the safe of the local union many of the 2,000 revolvers against extra assessments and the card system of the union continued to parade the streets. Dynamite was exploded under the porch of the home of P. K. Sullivan, an officer of the miners' union and the seceders vowed that a new union would be formed under leadership of officers of the Industrial Workers of the World.

The police are unable to find any of the insurgents reported to have taken $3,000 from the federation safe after it was dynamited.

Acting Mayor Frank Curran, who was thrown out of a window and sustained a broken leg and wrist while trying to pacify the mob which wrecked the federation's headquarters, is resting easy in a hospital.

INSIST UPON LEGISLATION

Congressmen Demand Action Before Adjournment.

Washington, June 15.—While some house leaders are pressing early adjournment sponsors for big pending measures are insisting upon legislation. The general dam bill and the five conservation bills are slated to follow the sundry civil appropriation bill, which may occupy all this week and run over into next. The dam bill is expected to take several days because of opposition.

GOT CUSTER'S LAST MEAL

Charley B. Johnson Succumbs to Gangrene.

Aberdeen, S. D., June 15.—Charley B. Johnson, who cooked the last meal that General George A. Custer ate before he went against the Sioux on the Little Big Horn, June 25, 1876, when he and his entire army were wiped out, died here at the German Baptist hospital from gangrene, from which he had been suffering the past four months. He was sixty-one years old and had been a resident of the West since his early boyhood.

TWO TRAINMEN KILLED IN WRECK.

Danville, Va., June 15.—Engineer John Wingate of Danville and Fireman Pickard of Southern Railway train No. 29, from New York to Birmingham, were killed in a derailment at Sadler, N. C., fifteen miles south of here.

MORMONS BUY SUGAR STOCK

Joseph F. Smith and Associates Purchase $625,000 of Securities. Ogden, Utah, June 15.—Joseph F. Smith, trustee in trust of the Mormon church, and his associates have purchased 25 per cent or $625,000 worth of the stock of the Amalgamated Sugar company from the American Sugar Refining company, according to a statement issued in Ogden, and have an option on the remaining 25 per cent held by the American company at $7.50 per share. The David Eccles estate and associates continue to hold the largest interest in the company. The motive assigned for the transfer is the suit pending in the federal courts against the American company.

BRITONS WIN FIRST GAME

Defeat American Team in International Polo Match.

Meadowbrook Polo Club, Westbury, L. I., June 15.—Completely demoralized by the speed and team work of the English challengers the American team went down to defeat here in the first game of the match for the international polo cup by a score of 8 1/2 to 3. After the first flurry in the opening period the defending four never held the sway, being outplayed and outspurred by the Hurlingham club representatives and the English ponies.

The defeat came as a great surprise to the majority of the 40,000 spectators. The cup defenders were 10 to 7 favorites in the wagering previous to the game.

KELLY'S ARMY IS ARRESTED

Fifty Members Will Be Put to Work on Roads.

Grafton, W. Va., June 15.—The vanguard of "General" Kelley's "army of the unemployed," on its way from San Francisco to Washington, was arrested here by Baltimore and Ohio railroad detectives on charges of trespassing. Unable to pay fines the fifty members of the party will be put to work on county roads. The men were ragged and unshaven and had not eaten for thirty hours.

Terrific Outburst Occurs From Mount Lassen.

VENTURES TOO NEAR CRATER

One Man Is Nearly Cut in Two by Jagged Rock, Another Is Injured and Two Are Missing—Two New Craters Burst From the Side of the Mountain.

Redding, Cal., June 15.—Mount Lassen finally erupted with volcanic fire and one man was killed, one injured and two are missing as a result of the terrific outburst from the crater.

Two new craters, in addition to one blown open May 30, burst from the mountain side. Fire from them was seen from roofs here, at Volta and other points. This was regarded as establishing the nature of the outbreak, which has been ascribed to geysers.

A previous eruption came from the crater on May 30. A. Lansing Graham ventured too near the cloud of smoke as it shot 2,000 feet into the air and a jagged rock sawed him nearly in two, cutting off his arm and exposing his heart. He was taken to Volta, a few miles distant, and died there.

Of the eight members in his party one, named Tipple, was seriously bruised and cut by rocks. Tipple became hysterical upon seeing Graham's ghastly wounds and later became incoherent, according to some reports, and entirely out of his normal mind, according to others.

Six of the party saved themselves by burying their faces in the snow and avoiding the poisonous gases which belched forth from the volcano.

This eruption, the seventh starting since May 30, was not so bad as on that day. The new craters, as nearly as could be determined, are about a mile apart. They were torn in the mountainside simultaneously with the first appearance of fire.

The sixth eruption shot a huge column of ashes 2,000 feet into the air. The pillar of smoke was watched from towns fifty miles distant.

Graham's death was not generally known and the new eruptions failed to deter scores of persons from scrambling over the mountain, taking pictures and venturing near the smoking crater.

STORMS IN FRANCE SEVERE

Cloudburst Causes Collision of Passenger Trains.

Paris, June 15.—Exceptionally severe storms have occurred in the north of France and Belgium and telegraphic communications are interrupted at many points. At Roubaix, on the canal of Roubaix, six miles north of Lille, a cloudburst did great damage. Several quarters of the city are flooded.

Near Courtrai, in West Flanders, the engineer of a train, blinded by torrents of rain, failed to observe another train standing at a station. The trains came together and a large number of passengers were injured.

FIVE KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Ten Other Workmen Suffer Probable Fatal Injuries.

Columbus, O., June 15.—Five men, four of them foreigners, are dead and ten are in hospitals, probably mortally injured, as the result of a gas explosion here in a trench in which a gang of laborers were laying a gas main. Five other men were painfully burned, but they will recover, according to physicians.

The cause of the accident has not been fully determined, but it is believed that a cap on a joint of gas pipe was blown off and that the escaping gas was ignited by a lighted cigar.

PASSENGERS GIVE THANKS

American Liner New York Badly Damaged in Collision.

New York, June 15.—With more than 650 persons on board, all of them thankful at having escaped a disaster similar to that in which the Empress of Ireland recently was sent to the bottom, the American liner New York, a gaping hole in her stern where the Hamburg-American liner Pretoria struck her in the fog off Nantucket, reached port safely.

As the steamer passed Fire Island and on her way into port an impressive service of thanksgiving, presided over by Rev. Francis E. Clark of Boston, founder of the Christian Endeavor society, was held. There was scarcely a dry eye among the congregation while "Nearer, My God, to Thee" was being sung in memory of those less fortunate than the New York's passengers in wrecks at sea.

Leading Tea Merchant Is Dead.

Larchmont, N. Y., June 15.—Thomas A. Phelan, first vice president of the National Tea association and one of the leading tea importers in the country, died of apoplexy at his home in Larchmont. He retired from active business a year ago at the age of sixty-eight years.

MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1914.

H. J. Maxfield is the only republican who is a candidate for the republican nomination for congress from the Sixth district.

I. A. Caswell is before the voters of the state for an endorsement as clerk of the supreme court. Mr. Caswell's record during the time he has filled that position has been such that it warrants his renomination and the voters are asked to consider his candidacy favorably.

Tomorrow is the day that every voter who has the interest of Crow Wing county and the Sixth district at heart should register his ballot in favor of H. J. Maxfield for congress. The district needs a live wire at this time and Maxfield is the man who will deliver the goods.

Senator Nelson is a close friend of J. A. O. Preus and he gives him a splendid recommendation for the office of state auditor. To a friend Senator Nelson writes: "From my acquaintance with him (Preus) I am satisfied that he will exercise and perform the duties of state auditor with ability, integrity and efficiency. In fact I can think of no one as well qualified for the office in every respect as he is."

This is the last issue of the Dispatch before the primary election, which takes place tomorrow, and while the campaign has been a spirited one in many respects there has been less ill feeling engendered than is usual in these contests. The campaign for the positions on the state ticket has been carried on practically from the twin cities, and outside of a few local addresses no political meetings have been staged for this city. The only sore spot on the program has been the manner in which the campaign for the republican nomination for governor has been conducted by the enthusiastic supporters of the opposition to Governor Eberhart and by them the extreme measures have not been overlooked, but in most instances the reaction has helped Gov. Eberhart in his campaign for a renomination, and to his credit and to the credit of his managers and their friends it can be said without fear of contradiction that there has been no villifying, nothing in the way of dirty politics attempted, and that their campaign has been one of decency and strictly in accordance with the views of the public in the way a campaign should be conducted, and it will be recorded tomorrow that Gov. Eberhart's vote will be increased by the dignified manner of his campaign. His renomination is predicted by those who have gone over the situation thoroughly.

FARMERS' PICNIC LARGELY ATTENDED

Maple-Platte Club Host on Saturday to Other Farmers Clubs and Many City People

GOOD PROGRAM OF SPEAKING

Mart Fleener Master of Ceremonies—
Opening of Beautiful Park at South Long Lake

The Maple-Platte Social club on Saturday entertained 500 people at the new park grounds on the shores of South Long lake in section 18, Maple Grove township, on the farm of Fleener and Treglawny. There were representatives there from the South east Long Lake club, the Kloverleaf club of Crow Wing, the Maple Grove Social club, the Chamber of Commerce and Booster clubs and many other visitors from Brainerd and vicinity.

It was the first picnic given on the grounds which embrace 25 acres and have over a mile of lake front. Near the park are the summer cottages of O. W. Merwin, Wm. Spencer, Lukens and Noggle, George Hess, and others. The land here is to be platted soon.

The committee having general management of the picnic included George Fleischer, Charles Narveson, Albert Alsleben, Mrs. Frank Walker, Miss Ruth Simmons, Robert Nelson and Oscar Olson.

Mart Fleener was master of ceremonies and in the afternoon introduced the first speaker, E. C. Davis, of St. Paul, of the extension division of the State Agricultural college.

Mr. Davis spoke of the methods at Barnum, of this state, where eggs are marketed cooperatively. Each farmer stamps his number on the eggs he sends to the association to market. Bad eggs can be traced to their source. The eggs, packed in cartons, command high prices on the Duluth market.

There were two ways of farming, the bonanza method and the intensive farming way. In the southern states farms were gauged by the miles used, there being the poor, little one-mile farm and so on up the scale. The intensive farming of Europe where the whole family was compelled to labor in the fields and where the ground was worked to its extreme capacity, was not desired in America, for it brought with it a cheap standard of living. The speaker advocated a middle ground as the best plan, a farm of medium size where the farmer operates his own farm and makes a good income. In other countries the farmer was not looked up to as he was in America.

"You have corn growing here as good as in southern Minnesota," said Mr. Davis. "You can grow alfalfa, small grain and can raise stock. In Kansas, land that can grow alfalfa is worth $100 an acre."

C. A. Russell, of Brainerd, said farmers should be interested in politics insofar as it was desirable to know what different candidates stood for.

"University speakers have told the farmers how to raise two blades of grass where formerly but one grew."

TRUSTS CAUSE DEPRESSION

Special to Dispatch:

Washington, June 15.—President Wilson made the direct charge today that the sentiment in favor of the postponement of the administration trust legislative program was the result of a campaign by certain interests, and intimated that it was the cause of "The psychological business depression" of which he recently spoke.

But have they told the farmer how to get full value in the markets for his products?"

Attorney Russell claimed there was a ring in the cities controlling the marketing of stock and grain. Some elevators, said he, shipped out millions of bushels more wheat than they received. Certain interests, said Mr. Russell, mulcted the farmer on one end and the consumer on the other end. The manipulation of grain and stock, said Mr. Russell, was a matter of public record. Bills would be introduced at the coming session of the legislature to remedy many of these faults. He claimed that switching charges at terminals, never paid or collected, had been assessed against farmer shippers.

The speaker called attention to the committee of 50 appointed by Governor A. O. Eberhart, a committee whose report on economy and efficiency would revolutionize the business of the state departments. The committee had spent eight months going over the ground. The people should uphold the committee's recommendations. Another matter to come before the next legislature was the regulation and control of public utilities and this ranked as high in importance as the economy and efficiency program mapped out by Governor Eberhart's committee.

Col. C. D. Johnson, candidate for the state senate, said the greatest wealth of the country came from the soil. Minnesota was the greatest state in the union. He had lived 37 years in Crow Wing county and believed it to be the greatest county in the state.

George H. Gardner, candidate for the state senate from this district, said he advocated the establishment of a public market in Brainerd and had been in communication with the farmers for a long time. It had been urged that a credit system would have to be inaugurated and that the market would thus be no success. To obviate this, Mr. Gardner favored the establishment of a semi-monthly payday, putting Brainerd on a cash basis and thus helping shopmen and the farmers, the one to buy and the other to sell products. There were some bad stretches of road between Brainerd and the picnic grounds and he urged the farmers to see the proper authorities to have them improved.

S. F. Alderman, candidate for county attorney, expressed his pleasure at being present at the picnic. His boyhood friends who had remained on the farms in the east were now sporting automobiles and talking silos and wondering what to do with all grass where formerly but one grew.

Hits, Brainerd Taking Kindly

As many expected, Brainerd turned the tables on Staples on Sunday by a 4 to 1 score wiped out the 6 to 0 defeat which Staples administered to the locals the previous Sunday.

Al Victor was on the mound for Brainerd and was fairly well supported. He struck out 11, including the formidable Sandy Johnson, one of the heaviest hitters on the Staples team. Ellis pitched for Staples striking out 10 men.

Erickson pulled off a fine play in the first inning when he plucked heading after a hot liner from Lee's bat and without a stop in his wild rush whipped the ball to first. It drew applause from the fans.

In the front ranks in the hitting column were Fred Cook and Tom Templeton.

Staples plays Brainerd here on July 4 and July 5.

GRAND OPERA QUARTET TODAY

Quintano's Band Plays Tuesday Afternoon and Evening, Closing Chautauqua

The attendance at the Chautauqua has been steadily increasing since the opening number. It is sincerely hoped that it may be large enough to warrant another Chautauqua next year. Brainerd cannot afford to allow such a good thing to pass by. Every other self-respecting town can support one.

The programs Saturday and Sunday were very fine. Saturday afternoon Hon. Elmer J. Burkett, of Nebraska, lectured on "The New Woman and the Old Man." Schildkret's Hungarian orchestra played its way into the hearts of the people.

In the evening the orchestra played over two hours with few intermissions and gave such a wealth of selections as to satisfy every one of the large audience. The violin, cello and piano solos were especially good.

On Sunday the Alpine singers and yodlers were heard in a Swiss concert. Julius Caesar Nayphe lectured on "America as Seen by an Oriental," being attired in native Athenian costume.

The program for Tuesday is here-with given:
Junior Chautauque—Play Festival. Morning lecture, "The Songs of the People."

Afternoon—Grand popular concert by Quintano and his band.

Human interest lecture, "Oil for Life's Machinery," Father Austin Fleming. Admission 35 cents.

Evening—Musical festival by Quintano and his band. A festival of harmony for everybody. Admission 50 cents.

VOTERS

The main reason I am advocating and will support if elected a semi-monthly payment bill for public service corporations is because, as applied to Brainerd, if the men in the shops get their pay twice a month they will be able to support a public market in Brainerd which the city should have.

At the instance of the Booster's Organization and as secretary thereof last year I sent out to the farmers of Crow Wing county about five hundred circular letters to ascertain their views relative to the establishment of a public market in Brainerd and I learned that the sentiment among the farmers favored such a market but many stated that they did not think it would be a success on account of the credit system which exists in Brainerd, and which credit system has been brought about on account of the shops paying but once a month.

My stand on the public market question is well known, and, therefore, my reason for advocating and willingness to support a bill to compel public service corporations to pay twice a month.

Soliciting your support at the Primaries, June 16, I remain

Respectfully yours,

TO THE VOTERS OF CROW WING COUNTY:—

The following unsolicited editorial from the Cuyuna Range Miner of June 5th, 1914, speaks for itself and is placed before you for your serious consideration.

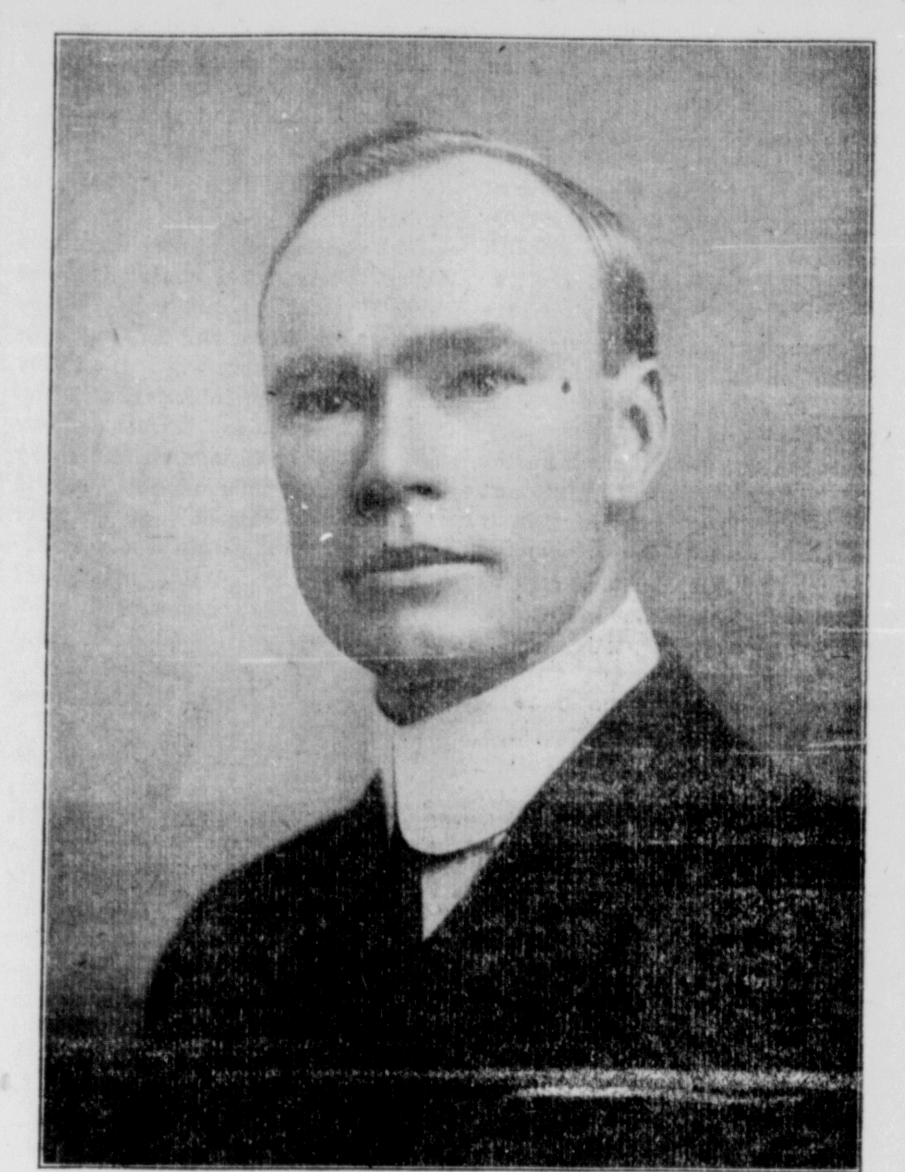

I believe that I have successfully performed the duty of the office of County Attorney, to which I was elected two years ago, without fear or favor and I am willing to stand upon my record for re-election. Trusting that your support will be given me, I am

GOTHFRED S. SWANSON

Candidate for Re-election for County Attorney of Crow Wing County, Minnesota

"COUNTY ATTORNEY SWANSON HAS 'MADE GOOD'"

IN HIS FIRST TWO YEARS"

"Attorney Gothfred S. Swanson of Brainerd has filed for the nomination of county attorney and stands in line to receive re-nomination and eventually election. In the last two years as prosecuting attorney he caused the law breaking individuals to have greater respect for law than they had before. In instances where old lawbreakers and penitentiary dodgers were driven to the extremity of employing the very best legal talent to escape punishment, Attorney Swanson has called in the assistance of the state's attorney and in no instance has guilty persons escaped the penalty justly meted out to them. To a large extent bootlegging, blind-pigging, and unlawful sale of liquors has been stopped or curtailed, and if carried on successfully is done with so much secrecy that it requires the employment of detectives to fasten the crime upon the offenders. In the prosecution of criminal cases Attorney Swanson has been uniformly successful and his good judgment in securing proper evidence for conviction of offenders against the law has resulted in putting a sudden check upon professional blackmailers and barnacles who have, to a considerable extent, thrived off the underworld class, receiving tribute through threats of arrest for unlawful practices. There have been a greater number of convictions against the lawless class under Attorney Swanson's administration than is of record under any other county attorney that Crow Wing County has ever had, and this is the cause of some opposition shown against his re-nomination. Mr. Swanson has been a conscientious public servant and the law-abiding, God-fearing citizens of Crow Wing county are behind him in his efforts to conduct his office on a plan that justifies his selection again at the primaries and endorsement at the general election."

LYNDON A. SMITH

ATTORNEY GENERAL

OF MINNESOTA

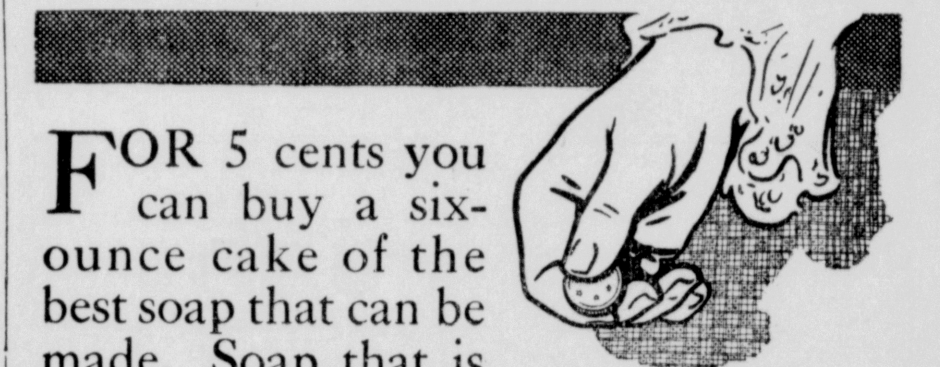

And candidate for a second term on the Republican ticket, at the Primaries on June 16th.

Attorney General Smith has been for 20 years a well known figure in the public affairs of Minnesota. As county attorney for Chippewa County, Lieutenant Governor of the State, Assistant Attorney General and for two and one-half years Attorney General, he has rendered high service to the State. Mr. Smith has not played politics in his official service and in his present campaign is content to submit his claims for re-election on the basis of his achievements as Attorney General.

Here are some significant figures from the records of Mr. Smith's office for the two and one-half years of his incumbency:

Inheritance taxes collected	$1,430,152.09
Other taxes collected by suits	215,032.19
Timber trespass collections	33,538.11
Other collection	18,315.30
Official inquiries answered, 3,000
Criminal cases handled in Supreme Court, 66
Civil cases handled, 164; brought, 105; closed up, 590.
Loan applications passed on, 616; involving state loans of $5,511,180.

All this splendid record has been accomplished without increasing the expenses of the office. Mr. Smith has even declined a legislative offer to increase his salary and has prosecuted important matters without expensive outside legal help, as had been the custom. Two years ago Mr. Smith was chosen for his first elective term by the second largest plurality given at the election. General Smith would appreciate the support of all Crow Wing County voters who approve an efficient and faithful administration of his office.
